Art Appreciation
Tour and Studio

Explore, Examine and Create!

This tour is a fun and engaging introduction to the Gallery's Permanent Collection and current exhibitions. Using a hands-on activity, students will be encouraged to discuss their response to both two-dimensional and three dimensional art.

In the studio, students will use the ideas discussed during the tour to create their own expressive artwork.

When booking, please choose one of the following workshops:

- 1 - Printmaking
- 2 - Acrylic Painting on Panel
- 3 - Clay Relief Sculptures

Dates: Wednesday and Thursday evenings from 6:00-7:30 p.m.

Cost: $7.00 per student
Minimum of 15 participants
No charge for parents or leaders

Please contact the Education Department at 905.576.3000 ext. 114 or E-mail: jtreleaven@rmg.on.ca

A cancellation fee of $20.00 applies to tours canceled less than two weeks before the tour date.

Allergen Policy: The Robert McLaughlin Gallery advises all programme registrants suffering from allergenic medical conditions, documented or otherwise, that they register at their own risk. The Robert McLaughlin Gallery, its employees, instructors and contractors make no representations and will accept no liability regarding presence or absence of all allergens at facilities where programmes take place. No staff member shall administer medication of any kind to a child. If a child has an allergy or other medical condition that may require a quick response with medication, the parent or other responsible adult who has the parent's permission, is welcome to stay in the Gallery in the event of that child's need.
